

JUSTICE FOR LIBERTY

"Two hours of pure hell."

"It was no accident."

"There was no mistaking who we were."

"It was divine intervention that the ship stayed afloat."

"It was absolutely a deliberate attack."

"Congress just looked the other way."

On June 8, 1967, Israeli forces tried to sink a U.S. Navy ship, the USS Liberty, killing 34 American servicemen and wounding 174.

The Liberty crew is one of the most decorated in U.S. Naval history. Yet, for decades this attack has been covered up and misrepresented. Justice for Liberty, filmed at the crew's 54th anniversary reunion in Pensacola, Florida, allows these men to tell the American public their stories, some for the first time.

It is time for the truth to come out.
