

What would YOU do if the world demanded that we 'recognize the right' of another country to take over 78% of our land?

